Completeness Check Comments

As a courtesy to our customers, the plan reviewers have conducted a completeness check to verify that the contents of the permit submission are adequate to complete a thorough first review. Even though all the minimum submittal documents were received, the plan reviewers have deemed your submittal as incomplete and compiled the completeness check comments below based on the scope and details of your project. Please address any comments below by updating your permit submittals and resubmitting them through the permitting portal.
